Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Have you ever met someone who you believe is an undercover superhero? Someone who always has a smile on their face, manages to be on top of things, and is always there for you when you need them? Maybe this person is your boss, neighbor, or friend. Personally, I think my aunt is hiding the fact that she’s actually Wonder Woman. It’s like she has an extra sense to send me adorable pictures of her cat when I’m feeling down. Who knows? Maybe somebody secretly thinks that you’re an undercover superhero.

Create your own narrative at the memoir and comix workshop. Show your appreciation for art by sitting in on the Vietnam Medals Art Project presentation. Turn recyclables into art at the Artists’ Collective recycled art event. Get paid to campaign for an issue you believe in by applying for a campaign job. Show off the life of an undercover superhero by becoming a HIPster.

Honestly, even superheroes sometimes struggle to hold the world together. But here at SASHP, we’re always willing to lend a helping hand.

With warmest regards,

Juliana Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media
Memoir and Comix Workshop
Do you have an interest in graphic narratives? Digital designer, illustrator, and educator JT Waldman will discuss famous graphic works Maus, Fun Home, American Splendor, and more, as well as his own work Not the Israel my parents promised me. He will also assist students with the creation of their own graphic memoirs. Oct 4, 6 to 7 PM at the Livingston Student Center, Livingston Campus. RSVP to honors@sas.rutgers.edu by Oct 2. Counts as an outside event for Honors Colloquium

Vietnam Medals Art Project
Come appreciate the art of none other than Assistant Dean Julio Nazario, who is a Vietnam War veteran. He will present and discuss his Vietnam Medals Art Project. Oct 3, 4:30 to 6 PM at 35 College Ave, College Ave Campus. Counts as an outside event for Honors Colloquium

Artists' Collective Recycled Art Event
Join the Artists' Collective for a night of turning recyclables to art! Bring your own recyclables, or use some of theirs. Glitter, markers, and glue will be provided. Sept 28, 3 to 5 PM at 35 College Ave, College Ave Campus.
Campaign Jobs for Students
The Fund for the Public Interest is a national non-profit organization that runs grassroots campaigns defending environmental and consumer protections, most recently tackling the issue of the overuse of antibiotics in livestock. They are hiring students to get out into communities and build support. Leadership positions are available. Fill out an interest form here.

Apply to be a HIPster!
Do you use social media a little too much? Connect with SASHP and show off your photography skills by applying to be a HIPster (Honors Instagram Poster)! Take over the SASHP Instagram and show off some of your favorite things to do around campus. Oh, the thrilling life of an honors student. Apply here.
