One Month Later

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Monday, October 1, 2018

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

It's official. We've all survived our first month of classes. Syllabus week is a fond memory, and midterms are closer than they appear. I think most of us are glad to escape the unbearable summer heat and to finally break out our favorite oversized sweaters. There's something about the changing of the seasons that makes me feel like a new person. I like to use this change in climate as a chance to cozy up with a cup of coffee and reflect upon my last month. What were some of my favorite moments? What could I have done differently? Although I am certainly a creature of habit, I realize that it's never too late to change my routine, break bad habits, and take better care of myself.

Take a look at the work of a past SASHP student by attending the Honors Alumni Photographic Exhibition Reception. If you're looking for good book recommendations, attend the Summer Reading Committee's Kickoff Meeting. Satisfy your inner critic by seeing The Rutgers Theater Company present "Vinegar Tom." Learn about life after Rutgers by reading our Honors Alumni Spotlight. Show off your eye for design by entering the SASHP Logo Design Contest. Tell us all about your college experience by submitting your Senior Spotlight. Get more involved and hone your writing skills by applying to blog for SASHP.

With the changing of the season comes the need for new routines, different clothing, and even food sources. SASHP understands that as students, we're in the constant process of changing and improving upon ourselves.

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

In this Newsletter
Events  p. 2-3
Honors Alumni Photographic Exhibit Reception
Summer Reading Committee Meeting
The Rutgers Theater Company Presents "Vinegar Tom"
Honors Alumni Spotlight

Opportunities p. 4
SASHP Logo Design Contest
Blog for SASHP!
Submit you Senior Spotlight!

SASHP One-on-One Tutoring
The SASHP One-on-One Tutoring Program provides students with a little extra academic help. Make the right call and schedule an appointment now. Visit sashonors.rutgers.edu.
Honors Alumni Photographic Exhibition Reception

The SASHP Artists Collective and SASHP alumni program present a photographic exhibition by Shannon Gilbert ‘18. “Reflections on a 2016 Summer Archaeological Experience in Italy” is an exhibition of photos taken during the summer 2016 study abroad trip through the Rutgers Archaeological Field School in Italy. SASHP invites faculty, staff, students and the honors alumni community to join Shannon for the exhibit’s closing reception. Light refreshments will be served. Oct 12, 6 to 7:30 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor, College Ave Campus. RSVP to hpalumni@sas.rutgers.edu by October 8. Exhibit available until Oct 15.

Summer Reading Committee's Kickoff Meeting

If you love to read, join the summer reading committee meeting. Get to know other SASHP students, read and discuss good books, and play a part in selecting the summer read for 2019. If you have an idea for a book, email kathy.sadowsky@rutgers.edu. Oct 12, 2 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor, College Ave Campus.
Rutgers Theater Company Presents “Vinegar Tom”

Attend a timely play that complements the discussion generated by #MeToo. The Rutgers Theater Company is presenting “Vinegar Tom,” an episodic story with songs chronicling two 17th century rural women accused of witchcraft when they dare to reject a man’s sexual advances. Oct 6, 7:30 PM or Oct 7, 2 PM at Victoria J. Mastrobuono Theater, 85 George Street, Douglass Campus. Student tickets available at 35 College Ave, College Ave Campus.

Counts as an outside event for Honors Colloquium

Honors Alumni Spotlight

Life after Rutgers can be daunting. Read about how SASHP alumni have handled it and their accomplishments. This month’s spotlight is on Brandon Li, an Economics major who works as a BlackRock analyst and recently hosted his grandparents from Beijing.

For a full calendar of events, visit, visit https://www.sashonors.rutgers.edu
SASHP Logo Design Contest
Show us your eye for design by designing SASHP a new logo! Winners will receive recognition across all SASHP media platforms and honors swag! For rules and application, click here.

Blog for SASHP
Are you interested in being more involved in the Honors Program? Do you love to write? Apply to be a blogger! Apply here by Oct 5.

Submit your Senior Spotlight
Graduating seniors, this one's for you. Tell us all about your Rutgers and Honors Program experience. Share with us what you've proudly accomplished during your college career and give us your most heartfelt advice. Apply here.

Follow Us!
rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com @RUSASHP @RutgersSASHP SAS Honors @RU_SASHP