Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

It’s official. The temperature has started to drop and Dunkin’ Donuts is selling hot apple cider: autumn is in full swing. Every hot Jersey summer feels like it’ll never end, daring to leak into the first days of September and even October. But now it’s time for me to break out my oversized sweaters and my favorite winter coat. I’m going to cherish these last few weeks before winter truly takes hold of Rutgers by eating my lunch outside and walking the scenic route to class. Autumn is a crisp, beautiful, in-between season that carries the feeling of magic.

Embark on a journey to professionalism by attending the event Passport to Student Success! Indulge your artistic interest at the Stop-Motion Workshop! Talk about your academic goals and drink iced coffee at Thirsty Thursday with Dean Kim-Lee. Learn about artificial intelligence at the lecture “People, Places, Stories and Games.” Challenge yourself and your friends at the Halloween Escape Room. Discuss studying abroad at Rutgers Global Conversations. The SASHP logo contest ends in a couple weeks: submit your design. Design an academic space by entering the Big10 Student Design Challenge.

Even though autumn brings us allergy season and midterms, I can’t help but love the season. Get out and enjoy autumn with these events, brought to you by the SASHP.

With warmest regards,

Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media
Passport to Student Success
Embark on a journey with the Peer Mentor Program, where your destination is success! Passport to Student Success will allow you a chance to speak with representatives from the Aresty Research Center, Graduate School of Education, Rutgers Global (Study Abroad), and more. Stop in to speak with peer mentors about different SAS majors and minors and receive helpful tips on spring registration. Oct 26, 2 to 3:30 PM at the Livingston Student Center Gathering Lounge, Livingston Campus. Counts as an outside event for Honors Colloquium.

Stop-Motion Workshop
Do you have an interest in making stop-motion films? Learn how with the Artists Collective and their STEAM coordinator! Cookies will be served. Oct 26, 3 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor, College Ave Campus.

Thirsty Thursday with Dean Kim-Lee
Get to know your advising dean! Dean Kim-Lee will be offering iced coffee and advising for this Thirsty Thursday event. Make a personal connection and get some excellent advice for your college career. Oct 25, 2 to 4 PM in McCormick Lounge, Busch Campus.
"People, Places, Stories and Games"

The Rutgers University Center for Cognitive Science (RuCCS) invites you to attend their fall 2018 Colloquium Series. Hear Dr. Mubbasir Kapadia, assistant professor in computer science here at Rutgers, explore the intersection of artificial intelligence, visual computing, and human-computer interaction in his lecture “People, Places, Stories and Games.” Oct 23, 1 PM in rm 101 of the Psychology Building, Busch Campus. Pizza will be provided in the RuCCS Playroom (A139) at 12 PM.

Halloween Escape Room

Can you escape in time for Halloweenday? The Peer Mentor Program is constructing an extra spooky Halloween escape room. Oct 29 and 30, 6 to 9 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor, College Ave Campus. Click here for more information and to sign up.
