Monday, November 5, 2018

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Now that the excitement of Halloween has passed, I’m ready to enjoy a nice and peaceful November. Midterms are over and the next school break is on the horizon. But we must not forget that November brings Election Day. That’s right! Exercise your right to vote in the midterm election tomorrow. After you do, here are a few events to help you celebrate your political responsibility.

Learn about the life of a distinguished Rutgers alumna at the alumni chat (seats are limited!). If you’re registering for classes, attend a registration information session on your campus. Enjoy a free brunch at the RSCA SunnySide Startup and chat with Dean Kim-Lee while you’re there. Join your classmates on an honors bus trip to Ellis Island. Show off your creativity by responding to the Artists Collective call for LGBT+ artists. Get advice from an honors student in this week’s honors blog post. Take a look at the spring honors courses to find a class that excites you!

Now that it’s November, we must also prepare ourselves for an onslaught of holiday advertising. From all of us at the SASHP, stay strong and don’t forget to vote!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media
Alumni Chat Happening @ 35
Come chat with a distinguished Rutgers alumna! Attorney Ella DeTrizio, partner at Reitler Law, will share her experience representing venture-backed emerging growth technology companies, primarily in the biotechnology, biopharmaceutical, and medical devices sectors. Click here to RSVP (required). Nov 8, 12 to 1 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor, College Ave Campus.

Registration Rush
Are you looking for advice on registering for classes? Come to an info session.
Busch Campus: Nov 8, 9 - 11 PM in McCormick Hall 5th Floor Lounge. Hosted by Peer Leader in McCormick Monisha.
Douglas Campus: Nov 7, 8 - 9 PM in Jameson H lounge. Hosted by Dean Sadowsky.
Livingston Campus: Nov 7, 8 PM in North Tower 8th floor lounge. Hosted by Peer Leader in North Tower Gabriel.

Commuters SunnySide Startup
Check out the SunnySide Startup this Monday (TODAY!) hosted by the Rutgers Commuter Student Association (RCSA)! Enjoy a free brunch while chatting with Rutgers staff and other commuter students. Learn about available services and resources just for you. Dean Kim-Lee will be there to chat from 10 - 11 AM. Nov 5, 10 AM to 1 PM at the Busch Student Center Cove, Busch Campus.

For a full calendar of events, visit www.sashonors.rutgers.edu
STATUE
&
of
LIBERTY
ELLIS ISLAND

Sunday, November 11

Bus departs College Ave Student Center at 10:00 a.m.

Sign up online at https://bit.ly/2Pancx6 and bring $5 to 35 College Ave.

Email honors@sas.rutgers.edu for more information.

For more information about the SAS Honors Program, visit us at sashonors.rutgers.edu
Call for LGBT+ Artists
The SASHP Artists Collective is collecting works from LGBT+ artists for an upcoming exhibit. Works may be of any medium, 11x14 or smaller. Email submissions and information to mam1053@scarletmail.rutgers.edu by Nov 5. The show will go up in mid-late November.

Honors Blog Post
Whether your SASHP capstone is years away or you’re in it right now, read this week’s honors blog post with tips on how to survive. Visit rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com.

So Many Courses...
Find courses that excite you! The SASHP offers Interdisciplinary Honors Seminars, Department-Based Honors Courses and Honors Colloquium. Click here for a full list of classes. You can even take an Honors course with an embedded study abroad opportunity! Check out this blog chronicling a 2016 trip to Poland at ataleoftwouprisings.wordpress.com

Follow Us!
@RutgersSASHP  @RUSASHP  rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com  SAS Honors  @RU_SASHP