Monday, November 12, 2018

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

There are various types of weekends. There are the weekends you devote to catching up on school work. There are the weekends you spend lounging around and enjoying well-earned free time. There are weekends filled with exciting plans to celebrate getting through another week of classes. Personally, I take after my mom – when she was in college, she went out with her best friend for milkshakes and a movie every Friday night and devoted Saturdays to homework. Whichever weekend you prefer, here are some events to help you make the most of your weekends and weeknights.

Pick up tickets for an Opera at Rutgers! Have a night of fun at the Peer Mentor Program Mic & Cookies event. Learn about a wide variety of science careers at the Alternative Science Careers Panel. Juniors: learn about career tools and honors resources at your honors academic meeting. Join the SASHP Artists Collective for a writing workshop on radical revision. Get inspiration for weekend plans in this week's honors blog post. Become more involved in the SASHP by applying to be an Honors Ambassador!

We all have our different “weekend modes.” Maybe it’s time to mix things up!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media
SASHP Newsletter
Campus Events

Opera At Rutgers
A retrospective of great American operas of the 20th and early 21st centuries, including works by Leonard Bernstein, Carlisle Floyd, Kurt Weili, Robert Livingston Aldridge, Jake Heggie, and Michael Ching. Pick up tickets at 35 College Ave (SASHP Main Office). Nov 17, 7:30 PM at Nicholas Music Center, Douglass Campus.

Mic and Cookies
Are you a fan of cookie decorating? Karaoke? Board games? All of the above? Come to the Mic & Cookies event, sponsored by the Peer Mentor Program and Artists Collective! Canned goods are encouraged for donation. Click here for more information and to sign up to perform. Nov 13, 8 - 10 PM at Livingston Student Center Coffeehouse, Livingston Campus.

Alternative Science Careers Panel
Wondering what you can do with a science degree outside of medicine, the lab, or the classroom? Meet alumni who studied science and took their careers into interesting areas. There will be alumni working as the Predator Supervisor at Six Flags Great Adventure, a recruiter in the life sciences industry, a professional health educator, a dean from the School of Environmental and Biological Sciences, a vice president of marketing for an organization at the intersection of science, health, and technology, and others! There will be pizza and a chance to connect with alumni informally. Nov 13, 6 - 9 PM at the Institute for Food, Nutrition, & Health rm 101, Cook Campus

For a full calendar of events, visit www.sashonors.rutgers.edu
JUNIOR ACADEMIC MEETING #1

HONORS SCHOLAR REQUIREMENTS
SENIOR CAPSTONE OPTIONS
THESIS PROJECT STARTER
STUDENT PANEL DISCUSSION

FRIDAY, NOV. 16 @ 1 - 3 PM
COLLEGE AVE CAMPUS
ACADEMIC BUILDING, ROOM 1180

For more information about the SAS Honors Program, visit us at sashonors.rutgers.edu
Honors Blog Post
Do you live for the weekend? This week's blog post is all about how to make the most out of your Friday, Saturday and Sunday! Visit rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com.

Apply to be an Honors Ambassador!
Do you want to be an integral part of recruitment for the SASHP? Apply to be an honors ambassador! Training begins in spring semester for participation in the SASHP Scholars day serving as panelists and luncheon hosts. Click here for more information and to apply (deadline is 5 PM Dec 7). Email knagy@sas.rutgers.edu with any questions. For more information about the program, visit sashonors.rutgers.edu.

Follow Us!
@RutgersSASHP  @RUSASHP  rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com  SAS Honors  @RU_SASHP

SASHP Newsletter | Events & Opportunities

Artists Collective Writing Workshop: Radical Revision
Join the Artists Collective TODAY! for a writing workshop on radical revision. What is radical revision? Come to find out! Bring a piece of writing you're looking to revise, and be prepared to go home with a completely different piece! As always, there will be cookies. For questions, contact Flannery at fmrollins@gmail.com. Nov 12, 8 - 10 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor, College Ave Campus.