

The Big Chill

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Wednesday, December 5, 2018

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

This past weekend, I joined thousands of other students, families, and members of the New Brunswick community to run the annual Big Chill 5k for charity. This was my fifth Big Chill - I've been running them for a quarter of my life. Every year, my group of teammates grows bigger. My brother started the tradition, running alone his freshman year at Rutgers. Now, we've expanded to include family, friends, roommates, and significant others, all of us donning matching Santa hats and reindeer antler headbands. Other runners also wore fun gear like one-piece pajamas and cozy Hanukkah sweaters. Participating in the Big Chill is something I'm proud of. This is a tradition perfect for the holiday season, one that makes me feel more connected to the New Brunswick community. And it's the perfect opportunity to take a photo for my family's holiday card.

Here are some events happening this week around the New Brunswick community. Join Rutgers Global for a film screening of BPM (Beats Per Minute) to commemorate this year's World AIDS Day and Day without Art. Keep up with the lives of honors students by reading this week's honors blog posts. Share what you're doing this winter with the SASHP by applying to be a winter Instagram HIPster! Take our survey and tell us what kind of honors swag you want to see. Get a head-start on your honors thesis by taking the course intro to the thesis.

From all of us here at the SASHP, keep on running towards the finish line.

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

Rutgers Global World AIDS Day Movie Screening

Join Rutgers Global and its university partners TODAY! for a screening of the French feature film, BPM (Beats per Minute), to commemorate this year's World AIDS Day and Day without Art. The film narrates the story of a group of activists in Paris in the early 1980s - members of ACT UP (AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power) - who go to battle for those stricken with HIV/AIDS. Amid rallies, protests, fierce debates and ecstatic dance parties, the newcomer Nathan falls in love with Sean, the group's radical firebrand, and their passion sparks against the shadow of mortality as the activists fight for a breakthrough. Dec 5, 7:30 - 10:30 PM at the College Ave Student Center, College Ave Campus.
