

I've Got the Magic In Me

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Wednesday, January 30, 2019

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

If you look closely, life has these little moments of magic that you see everyday. Maybe this moment comes in the form of the dining hall having your favorite flavor of ice cream, a professor commenting on the brilliant quality of your work, or a bus pulling up to your stop right as you need it. Rutgers isn't Hogwarts, but magic can be found across campus if you only take the time to look. This weekend is the perfect opportunity to see magic at work during the SASHP's Winter Formal! Click here to check out our fantastic trailer.

Give back to your community - and win raffle tickets for this weekend's formal - by donating to the SASHP food drive. Learn about internships and post-graduate options by attending the Northwestern Mutual info session. Take advantage of a free brunch and learn about services available to commuter students at the Sunnyside Startup. Plan ahead for your summer by applying to the Tolerance, Diversity and the Holocaust: Lessons for Today program. Spend your summer exercising and stamping out food insecurity by learning about The Dream Project. Tell us about your significant college experiences by completing a SASHP Profile. Take on a paid leadership position by applying to be a Peer Mentor in Residence.

From all of us here at the SASHP, we're wishing you a magical semester.

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

Opportunities

The Dream Project

You could spend your summer biking across the country! Through The Dream Project, students commit to fundraising and hands-on volunteering in support of a local charity doing work in their community before ultimately biking across the country in the name of the cause. Want to join the 2019 Dream Team stamping out food insecurity by biking to Portland, Oregon? We want to have you! Ready for adventure? Email gabrielle@thedream.bike to learn more.

SASHP Profiles

Be in the first edition of SASHP Profiles! Tell us about your significant experiences outside the classroom. Include recent RU experiences, internships, shadowing, or engagement experiences you had elsewhere. Each year we will collect these stories to help current SASHP students get great ideas for opportunities and to give prospective students and alumni a sense of what you're all up to! Click here to share what you learned, how you grew, and how the experience connects with your academic or career goals.

Peer Mentor in Residence Application

Are you looking for a paid leadership position for the 2019-20 academic year? Apply to be a Peer Leader in Residence for Livingston North Tower honors community. Coordinate events and programs for the SASHP floor in North Tower, develop a relationship with the SASHP staff, and work closely with other honors students. Email mahasti.hashemi@rutgers.edu for an application. Deadline Feb 6.
