In Bloom

Wednesday, March 13, 2019

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

It's the moment we've all been waiting for: a well-deserved break from class. Whether you’re spending your spring break travelling, visiting family, having fun with friends or just catching up on sleep, have a good one! Here are a few of my favorite seasonal puns to put a little spring in your step for the rest of this week. Why is spring a tree's favorite season? Because it's always a re-leaf. Why are April and May a florist's favorite months? Because business is blooming. What did the daisy say to his friendly neighbor? “You're such a great bud!”

Here are a few events and reminders. Juniors: Don’t forget to fill out your Capstone Plans Form found on the SASHP website. Join a discussion on respectful political discourse at this month's Pizza and Politics panel. Interested in pursuing a master's in political science? Check out the UNMA Accelerated Program info session. Join SASHP honors students on a bus trip to The Museum of the City of New York. Talk about advising and satisfy your sweet tooth at Donuts with Dean Kim-Lee. Become a part of the SASHP Media Team leadership by applying for the Digital Historian or Blog Editor positions. Share your SASHP wisdom with a first-year student by applying to be a Peer Mentor. Spend a day in your chosen field by applying to the Summer Shadow Experience Program.

From all of us here at the SASHP, enjoy the break!

With warmest regards,

Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

Capstone Plans Form
JUNIORS: tell us about your capstone plans. All SASHP juniors are required to submit the SAS Honors Program Online Capstone Form by Friday, April 12, 2019. For more information on capstone options and requirements, visit www.sashonors.rutgers.edu.
The Center for Youth Political Participation presents "Pizza and Politics: Fostering Respectful Political Discourse on College Campuses." Join a discussion between students on the topics of free speech, diversity and inclusion on college campuses. The discussion will be facilitated by national expert Nancy Thomas, Director of the Institute for Democracy and Higher Education, Tufts University. March 26, 5:30 - 7 PM at Eagleton Institute of Politics, Douglass Campus. To register, click here. *Counts as honors colloquium outside event.

UNMA Accelerated Program Info Session
Have you thought about getting your master's in political science in less time and with less tuition than the traditional master's? You are invited to a UNMA informational session lunch. Come learn about how to earn your Rutgers M.A. degree in Political Science, United Nations and Global Policy Studies. This program is ideal for students wishing to further their education towards an MA degree during their undergraduate years or for recent graduates with a BA degree. Potential students from all disciplines of study are welcome. March 29, 12:30 - 2pm in Hickman Hall rm 612, Douglass Campus. To RSVP, click here.

Trip to the Museum of the City of New York
Join SASHP students on an honors bus trip to the Museum of the City of New York. The museum currently features the exhibit In the Dugout with Jackie Robinson: An Intimate Portrait of a BaseBall Legend. Bus departs March 31, 11:45 AM from College Ave Campus Student Center and returns to campus by 6 PM. To register, click here. *Counts as honors colloquium outside event.
