Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

This is it, folks. Since I started working for the SASHP, I've published 49 newsletters. This will be the 50th. 50 newsletters full of events, opportunities, and news specifically tailored for SASHP students. 50 newsletters posted on the bulletin board at 35 College Ave. It’s been an incredible journey: I’ve definitely improved along the way. Thankfully, I haven’t run out of ideas just quite yet.

Here are some fun events coming up. See your peers present their exciting research at the Interdisciplinary Honors Thesis Conference. Want to see some theater? Catch a Basement Shakes performance of A Doll's House. Join Rutgers Off-Campus Living and Community Partnerships for the panel Mental Health and Religion: An Interfaith Dialogue. Read about the experiences of an accomplished SASHP student in this week's Senior Spotlight.

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the week!

With warmest regards,

Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences Honors Program
Basement Shakes Presents: A Doll’s House

Basement Shakes is an unruly, irreverent, upstart brigade of Rutgers students out to reclaim Shakespeare! They’re collaborating with SASHP Artists’ Collective for a production of A Doll’s House. And this time they’re bringing down the house: the Doll’s House. April 18, 7 - 10:30 PM at 35 College Ave (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus.

Mental Health and Religion: An Interfaith Dialogue

Join Rutgers Off-Campus Living and Community Partnerships for a conversation about mental health and religion, spirituality, and worldview. The event features a diverse panel discussion about experiences with mental illness, stigma, religion and community. Kosher and vegetarian dinner, including vegan options, will be served! April 17, 8 - 9:30PM, Douglass Student Center Meeting Rm E.

Senior Spotlight: Han Yan

Check out the SASHP Blog to read about the amazing experiences of Han Yan in this week’s Senior Spotlight. He is graduating with degrees in cognitive science, German and philosophy and a minor in Psychology.
