Endgame Initiation

Monday, April 29, 2019

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

The last week of classes has officially begun. I’m trying not to despair at the thought of going to the last of my Walt Whitman seminars, my last board game night, or my last overlapping shift at the SASHP office with a friend who’s graduating. I’m not going to lie: it’ll be a huge relief to finish up some of the classes that have been stressing me out this semester, and I have exciting plans lined up for myself over the summer.

Here are some fun events and opportunities for you to enjoy this week. Learn about a unique summer opportunity at the Dream Project interest meeting. Help you fellow RU students succeed by applying to be a peer tutor. Grab some breakfast while visiting Dean Ackerman for an advising session. Are you stressing out over finals? Join the Peer Mentors for a De-Stress Night. Stop by the SASHP office to saw farewell to Dean Nazario before he retires. Read about the experiences of Sanjana Ravi in the newest Senior Spotlight! Are you looking to become more involved in the SASHP next year? Apply to join our Video Team or to become a Blog Staff Writer!

From all of us here at the SASHP, enjoy your last week of classes!

With warmest regards,

Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

The Dream Project Interest Meeting
Do you want to spend your summer biking across the country? Through The Dream Project, RU students commit to a year of fundraising, hands-on volunteering, and practical non-profit work experience in support of a local charity in Middlesex County before biking across the country in the name of the cause. All gear, transportation, and food for the trip are covered. Information session May 1, 5 PM at 35 College Ave (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus. Learn more at thedream.bike.

Peer Tutor Application
Are you interested in helping fellow RU students succeed in their classes? Apply to be a Peer Tutor! It’s a 2 hour per week commitment for the fall 2019 semester, you are allowed to make your own schedule, and comprehensive training is provided. Apply at sashonors.rutgers.edu/tutor-application

Advising with Dean Ackerman
Need advice on classes, your college career, or life in general? Drop in for breakfast and honors advising with Dean Ackerman! May 3, 10 AM - 12 PM in Brett Hall Lounge, College Ave Campus.

Peer Mentor De-Stress Night
Join the Peer Mentors before finals to relax with friends. The event includes food, desserts, beverages, coloring, games, and RU Companion Animal Club puppies! All students welcome. May 1, 8 PM at McCormick Lounge, Busch Campus.

Farewell, Dean Nazario!
Tomorrow, April 30th, marks Dean Nazario's last day working at the SASHP. He has been instrumental in the appreciation of the arts within the SASHP. He is known for exhibiting his own work, encouraging all students to explore his or her creative side, and leading the Artists Collective. Dean Nazario's plans after retirement include more time devoted to his own artwork. We'll miss you, Dean Nazario!

Senior Spotlight: Sanjana Ravi
Check out the SASHP Blog to read about Sanjana Ravi in this week's Senior Spotlight. She is graduating with a degree in exercise science and a minor in psychology. She is also a SASHP Senior Leader Awardee and helped start the Disability Allies Chapter at RU. Read more about her advice, experiences, and plans for the future at rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com.
