Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Greetings from 35 College Ave! When I was a kid, I used to send postcards up the east coast to my cousin living in Rhode Island. Although we chatted on Facebook every week, it was still nice to exchange hand-written mementos. It reminded me that she was, like me, a real person. Of course, it also gave me an excuse to use my glitter gel-pens. Although the tradition halted after we both began college, I still managed to collect a few unsent postcards over the years. I collected them from amusement park gift shops, conventions, and even bookstores. It’s been a while since I’ve bought a stamp, but maybe it’s time to restart the old tradition. Whether you’re close or far, it’s always a joy to receive a physical reminder of a friend or loved one.

Here are some events coming up that are fun enough to write home about. Juniors and seniors: learn about internships and job openings at the Deloitte recruitment event! Economics and RBS students: join esteemed alumni from Toorak Capital Partners, Bloomberg and BlackRock for an honors alumni night. Join the Artists Collective for a zine-making workshop or their salon. Join WRSU for their annual fall concert. Reserve tickets for the NJ Film Festival. Learn about the 5-Year Teacher Education Program at their upcoming info session. Show your school spirit with a SASHP DIY game-day t-shirt! Seniors: share your wisdom, experiences, and reflections by filling out a Senior Spotlight. Show off the life of an honors student by applying to be a HIPster! Do you enjoy writing? Now’s your chance to blog for the SASHP!

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,

Julianna Rossano
