Wednesday, October 16, 2019

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

When I first started out at Rutgers, I knew that there were certain things I wanted to do as a student. I wanted to gain work experience, study abroad, and take as many English classes as I could. Luckily, I can proudly say that I can I have accomplished all three of these tasks. But they weren’t easy. Although it sounds simple, I had a little difficulty finding the courage to seek each opportunity. Applying for a job and interviewing is intimidating. I have little experience travelling, so I was nervous about enrolling in a class that would take me to the Dominican Republic over winter break. But I knew I wanted to gain these experiences, so I worked hard to find the ones that appealed to me. I also sought out people who would help me get connected, such as my honors advisor. If you’re also looking to fulfill your own goals, the Honors Peer Mentors are hosting the Passport to Student Success this Friday.

Here are some fun events coming up. Check out the SAS Major and Minor Fair for academic and career options. Recognize World Food Day by attending the interactive program Food Justice, Food Policies, and Local Food Insecurity. Join the SASHP on a trip to the Tenement Museum. Learn about a unique community service opportunity by attending The Dream Project Info Session. Join the Artists Collective for a salon and writing workshop. Check out the Halloween costume contest, hosted by the Honors Peer Mentors! Sign up for a Scarlet and Black Tour to learn about our school's deep and storied past. Watch an award-winning film at our movie night. Take five minutes to let us know your thoughts in the honors housing survey.

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,

Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media
SAS Major and Minor Fair
Investigate academic and career options in one place, at one time! Come to this SAS fair to learn about majors, minors, certificates, careers and more. There will also be information on non-classroom opportunities such as internships, study abroad, and research. Over 70 departments/programs will be represented. Get expert advice about course selection! There will be refreshments and prizes, too! Oct 23, 1 - 4 PM at Livingston Student Center, Livingston Campus.

Food Justice, Food Policies, and Local Food Insecurity
In recognition of World Food Day and United Nations Day, Rutgers Global and its university partners will host an interactive program to raise awareness about issues of food justice, food policies, and local food insecurity. The program will open with an info fair and a keynote lecture by Professor Alyshia Gálvez (The New School), author of Eating NAFTA: Trade, Food Policies, and the Destruction of Mexico. Student members of The Dream Project will share their experiences of biking across the country. For more info and to RSVP, visit the Rutgers Global website. Oct 22, 6:30 - 10 PM at College Ave Student Center, College Ave Campus.

Trip to Tenement Museum
The Tenement Museum celebrates the enduring stories that define and strengthen what it means to be American. Stories of the immigrant and migrant experience are shared through immersive guided tours and educational content. Learn about newcomers to America who faced discrimination by registering for the Irish Outsiders apartment tour at the Tenement Museum. Students must bring $5 to 35 College Avenue (during regular business hours) or to Colloquium Large Assembly to confirm their space. Register by Oct 25, 4:30 PM. Bus departs from the College Avenue Student Center on Oct 27 at 8:15 AM, returns by 2 PM. *Counts as an outside event for Honors Colloquium.
SASHP Newsletter
Campus Events

Passport to Student Success
At the Passport to Student Success, hosted by the Honors Peer Mentor Program, speak with representatives from the Aresty Research Center, Graduate School of Education, Rutgers Global (Study Abroad), and more. Stop in to speak with peer mentors about different SAS majors and minors and receive helpful tips. Oct 18, 2 - 3:30 PM at the Livingston Student Center Gathering Lounge, Livingston Campus. Counts as an Honors Colloquium outside event.

Dream Project Interest Meeting
Interested in hands-on volunteering and cycling? Riders in the Dream Project complete community service benefitting Elijah’s Promise before biking across the country in the name of the cause. Attend their info session to hear from past riders (including a few SASHPers) and learn more about how you can spend your summer cycling. All gear, transportation, and food for the trip are covered for those who meet their fundraising goals. Questions? Email dreamteam@thedream.bike or check out thedream.bike. Oct 16, 7:30 PM at Brett Hall Seminar Rm, College Ave Campus.

Artists Collective Salon and Writing Workshop
Modeled after the salons of Paris, the Artists Collective will be holding a salon for networking, drawing, and artistic conversation. There will be cookies and other snacks! Oct 18, 2-4 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus. Can’t make it? They will also hold a writing workshop on Oct 22, 4:30-5:30 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor.
PRESENTED BY SASHP PEER MENTORS

Halloween Costume Contest

Open to all SASHP Students
COUNTS AS PEER MENTOR EVENT

DM COSTUME PICTURE TO @HPMENTOR ON INSTA FROM
SUN, OCT 27- SAT, NOV 2

INCLUDE NAMES OF PARTICIPANTS,
CLASS YEARS, AND TITLE FOR COSTUME PHOTO

SCORING:
- 1 like on Insta = 1 point
- 1 like on Facebook = 1 point
- 1 bonus point if student is currently a Peer Mentor or Peer Mentee
- 5 bonus points if Peer Mentor & Mentee take a costume photo together
- 5 bonus points if Peer Mentor % Mentee coordinate costumes

PRIZES
Photo with the most points (refer to scoring) will win a SASHP Swag bag (duffel bag with poncho, bottle, lanyard, reusable metal straw, flashlight, color changing cup, and fleece blanket)- a maximum of two prizes

Voting will take place on Peer Mentor Instagram
@hpmentor and Peer Mentor Facebook
@rutgers.peermentor
Sunday, Nov 3rd- Sunday, Nov 10 at 11:59pm

RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences
Honors Program
Scarlet and Black Tour
What roles have slavery and dispossession played in Rutgers history? The Scarlet and Black Project is a historical exploration of the experiences of two disenfranchised populations - African Americans and Native Americans - at Rutgers University. Learn about our school's deep and storied past with current SASHP student, Carson Cummins '21, as your guide. Click here to RSVP. Oct 23, 6 - 7 PM, tours depart from outside Old Queens at Will's Way. *Counts as an outside event for Honors Colloquium.

Movie Night: Lion
Join your fellow honors students for a movie night! This week’s feature flick will be Lion, starring Dev Patel. Based on the memoir A Long Journey Home, the film tells the story of a boy from India who gets lost in Calcutta and is adopted by an Australian couple. 25-years later, he begins the long search for his birth mother. Pizza will be served. Oct 18, 8 PM at North Towers 8th Floor Lounge, Livingston Campus. Next week, there will be a showing of The Namesake on Oct 24, 9:30 PM at Brett Hall, College Ave Campus. *Counts as an Honors Colloquium outside event.

Honors Housing Survey
Whether or not you live in honors housing, we want to hear your thoughts about it! Take five minutes and share them with us. Click here.