Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Halloween is approaching and I couldn't be more excited. Halloween is my favorite time of the year. My apartment is decorated with bats and witches, I have plans to watch Hocus Pocus, and my costume finally arrived in the mail. Halloween is a fun break, the first major event of the fall semester. As a kid, October 31st was a mix of spooky and magical. I still carve pumpkins and listen to “The Monster Mash” to keep that magic alive.

Here are some fun events coming up. Don't be scared about registering for classes! Join the PLIM for a web-reg info session and Halloween movie night. Seniors: learn about resources for life beyond Rutgers at the Senior Academic Meeting. Check out informative panels hosted by the Eagleton Institute of Politics. If you have questions about advising, ask your Honors advising dean or stop by drop-in advising with Deans Ackerman, Sadowsky or Kim-Lee. Be sure to read an important Artists Collective announcement. Learn about internship opportunities and how to get hired at the Internship Success Panel. Take a few minutes to participate in the Rutgers Indigenous Survey Project. Catch an award-winning film at the Jameson movie night! Looking to socialize with Honors students and deans? Join the PLIM to Get “S’more” info from Dean Keeton! Are you dressing up for Halloween? Enter the Halloween Costume Contest, hosted by the Honors Peer Mentors. Hear from student political protestors at the Hong Kong Democracy Panel. As you're planning your courses for the spring semester, check out the Honors Global Experiences. If you have a passion for serving, apply for the Key into Public Service Scholarship.

From all of us here at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,

Juliana Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

Join the Honors Peer Mentors for a panel, where SASHP students from a wide range of academic backgrounds and career interests will share their internship experiences. Attendees also receive: resume advice and critique, practice interview questions, networking tips, professional headshot photos, and early access to the Rutgers Honors Alumni Directory. Nov 15, 2 - 4 PM at Livingston Student Center Collaborative Learning Center, Livingston Campus.
Rutgers Indigenous Survey Project

Take a brief, anonymous survey for a project about the presence and representation of indigenous languages in the Rutgers community. This survey is part of a research project carried out in honor of the 2019 UN Year of Indigenous Languages by a group of undergraduate students and three professors from the Anthropology Department. Preliminary results will be presented at the Colloquium on Indigenous Languages in/of New Jersey on Nov 15. The findings will also be used to illuminate the experiences of indigenous members of the Rutgers community and start a conversation on making relevant resources available to them. Take the survey anonymously here: https://rutgers.ilp.survey

Movie Night: Lion

Join your fellow honors students for a movie night! This week, there will be a showing of Lion, starring Dev Patel. Based on the memoir A Long Journey Home, a boy from India gets lost in Calcutta and is adopted by an Australian couple. 25-years later, he begins the long search for his birth mother. Oct 30, 8:30 PM at Jameson H, Douglass Campus. *Counts as outside events for Honors Colloquium

Get "S'more" info from Dean Keeton!

Join the Peer Leader in McCormick for some s'mores and socializing! Dean Keeton will be there to connect with you and to answer any of your questions. Come prepared for yummy food! Nov 13th (rain date Nov 14th), 8 PM in Busch Suites Courtyard, Busch Campus.
