

Sharing is Caring

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Monday, November 11, 2019

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

I, like many people, grew up in a household where sharing wasn't optional. My sister and I are close enough in age that we shared things like toys, electronics, friends, and clothes. I'm lucky that I learned this skill so young, because it feels like an integral part of my life here at Rutgers. Here, most things are shared. Spaces, knowledge, skills, food, trivialities, and more. I have little trouble sharing these things because they're also shared with me. At Rutgers, and in the SASHP, we're a community built on sharing what we need to succeed.

Here are some exciting events coming up to share with your friends! Hear from student political protestors at the Hong Kong Democracy Panel. Join the Artists Collective for two events: a writing workshop and a coffeehouse. Hear esteemed poet Jericho Brown read his work at the Writers at Rutgers Series. Socialize with honors students and deans at Get "S'more" Info from Dean Keeton! Stop by the Eagleton Institute of Politics for the talk A Mayor for All the People: Kenneth Gibson's Newark and book signing. Seniors: get tips on how to write your scholarly report at the capstone report workshop. Interested in AI? Attend the next RUCCS Colloquium. Learn about internship opportunities and how to get hired at the Internship Success Panel. Apply for a stipend from the RISC. Get involved in the SASHP by applying for a spot on our SASHP Video Production Team. Check out two opportunities to support your community and further your studies from the Collaborative Center for Community-Based Research.

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

In this Newsletter

Events p. 2 - 4

Hong Kong Democracy

Artists Collective Events

Writers at Rutgers: Jericho Brown

Get "S'more" Info from Dean Keeton

A Mayor for All the People: Kenneth Gibson's Newark

Capstone Report Workshop

RUCCS Colloquium

Internship Success Panel

RISC Stipend

Opportunities p. 5

SASHP Video Production Team

Collaborative Center for Community-Based Resources

The Big Chill

Do you like exercise and community service? Registration is open for The Big Chill 5K on Rutgers' College Avenue Campus on Dec 7. Join over 9,000 participants who donate thousands of toys for local charities.

RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences
Honors Program

SASHP Newsletter

Campus Events

Hong Kong Democracy Panel

The Institute for Research on Women invites you to join a panel on Hong Kong democracy. It will feature 4-6 student organizers from Hong Kong in a Skype call where they will discuss their movement for democracy in Hong Kong and how it has affected their lives. Nov 11, 7:30 - 9:30 PM, Douglass Student Center Traves Hall, Douglass Campus.

Writing Workshop and Coffeehouse

Are you taking part in the national novel-writing month? Do you have a writing piece you want to workshop? The Artists Collective will hold a writing workshop on Nov 12, 4:30 - 5:30 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus. There is also a coffeehouse on Nov 20, 7:30 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor. There will be pizza!

Writers at Rutgers: Jericho Brown

Join the RU English department for a reading from esteemed poet Jericho Brown. His books of poetry include Please (2008), The New Testament (2014) and The Tradition (2019). His poems have appeared in Buzzfeed, The Nation, The New York Times, The New Yorker, The New Republic, Time, The Pushcart Prize Anthology, and several volumes of The Best American Poetry anthologies. Nov 13, 8 PM in the Rutgers Student Center, College Ave Campus.

SASHP Newsletter

Campus Events

Get "S'more" Info from Dean Keeton!

Join the Peer Leader in McCormick for some s'mores and socializing! Dean Keeton will be there to connect with you and to answer any of your questions. Come prepared for yummy food! Nov 13th (rain date Nov 14th), 8 PM in Busch Suites Courtyard, Busch Campus.

A Mayor for All the People: Kenneth Gibson's Newark

The Eagleton Institute of Politics will host A Mayor for All the People: Kenneth Gibson's Newark. Join co-editors Robert C. Holmes and Richard W. Roper as they discuss their new book exploring the legacy of Kenneth Gibson, the first African-American mayor of Newark. A book signing and reception will follow. Registration is required. Click here to find the registration link or visit eagleton.rutgers.edu/events. Nov 14, 5:45 PM at Eagleton Institute of Politics, Douglass Campus.

Happening @35: Scholarly Analytic Report Workshop

Working on Honors capstone options C (graduate courses), option D (professional graduate program or dual degree), or option E (internships, certificate programs, etc.)? Swing by 35 College Ave for a workshop on writing a scholarly analytical report. Review samples and get pointers for writing your Honors capstone report from Honors deans. Nov 14, 3:30-4:30 PM at 35 College Ave Parlor (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus

SASHP Newsletter

Campus Events

RUCCS Colloquium

The RU Center for Cognitive Science invites you to the lecture "Generative Modeling of Space, Time, and Objects: A First Step to Endowing Common Sense to Machines." The lecture is hosted by Sungjin Ahn, RU Assistant Professor in the department of computer science, and he will present how an artificial agent can build the world model in an unsupervised fashion. Nov 19, 1 - 2:30 PM at the Psychology Building RM 105, Busch Campus.

Internship Success Panel

Want to learn more about internship opportunities or how to get hired? Join the Honors Peer Mentors for a panel discussion where SASHP students from a wide range of academic backgrounds and career interests will share their internship experiences. Attendees also receive resume advice and critique, practice interview questions, networking tips, professional headshot photos, and early access to the Rutgers Honors Alumni Directory. Nov 15, 2 - 4 PM at Livingston Student Center Collaborative Learning Center, Livingston Campus.

RISC Stipends

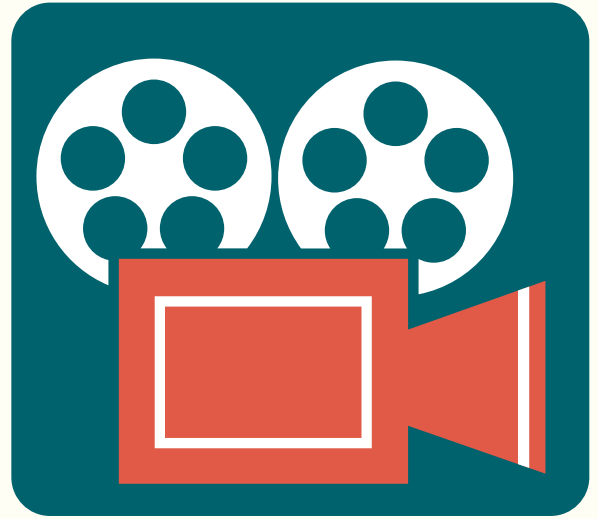

The Rutgers Institute for Secure Communities is pleased to offer stipends in support of student achievements and professional endeavors. Check out stipends for studying abroad, research, professional development, internships, and critical technology studies. Visit risc.rutgers.edu/stipends to apply.

SASHP Newsletter Opportunities & Media

SASHP Video Production Team

Calling all photographers, videographers, graphic designers, video editors, and more! The SASHP Media Team is expanding and we would love for YOU to be a part of it! Members of the SASHP Media Production Team will be working alongside the Director of Creative Digital Content to create original video content for the education and entertainment of SAS Honors Program students. Click here for more information and to apply (deadline Nov 20).

Collaborative Center for Community-Based Research Opportunities

The Collaborative Center for Community-Based Research invites you to apply for two opportunities. Visit engage.rutgers.edu/students to apply:

- Behavioral Assistant Program: A two-semester, 2-credit opportunity offered through school district partnerships with Rutgers Collaborative Center. Rutgers undergraduates work as part of a team under the supervision of professional special education staff, psychologists, and teachers to support public school students on the autism spectrum.
- Collaborative Mentoring Program: This program can result in a certificate! Learn how to support promising youth affiliated with local college access programs by taking a 1-credit recitation or 3-credit course, Introduction to Youth Mentoring. You will also implement academic frameworks to improve your mentoring skills and mentor students in a community setting 2-3 hours per week.

Follow Us!

@RutgersSASHP

@RUSASHP

rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com

SAS Honors

@RU_SASHP