Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

We’re all excited for a well-deserved break. I’m looking forward to homemade cranberry sauce and watching the Macy's Day Parade, where my brother will be a balloon-holder this year! I know I told some corny jokes last year, and I promised myself I wouldn’t this time around. But I can’t just quit cold turkey! Here are some of the worst Thanksgiving jokes to tell your family. Why was the cook late to Thanksgiving dinner? Because he lost track of thyme! What do pilgrims call their friends? Pal-grims! Why did the turkey join a rock band? Because he already had drum sticks. After all, telling jokes is easier than talking to my family about my plans for after college!

Here are some fun events coming up. Questions about advising? Ask your honors advising dean or stop in for Desserts with Dean Kim-Lee. If you’re interested in studying abroad, apply for our newest spring Global Experience, An Amazonian Journey in Peru. Show some love for the SASHP by applying to be an Honors Ambassador. Attend the Eagleton Institute of Politics Alumni Panel: Careers in Politics, Policy, and Public Affairs. Looking for another travel opportunity? Check out Creative Writing and Walking in England. The RWJ Medical School is seeking a photographer for their winter formal - respond now! Submit your research to the Aresty Rutgers Undergraduate Research Journal. Get involved in the SASHP by applying for a spot on our SASHP Video Production Team - the deadline has been extended! Are you looking to start networking? Check out the Honors Alumni-Student Networking Directory.

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the week!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

Rutgers Food Pantry
If you're running low on cash and meal swipes, make sure to get the food you need from the Rutgers Food Pantry. Located on 39 Union St of College Ave. Find out more at ruoffcampus.rutgers.edu/food.
Desserts with Dean Kim-Lee
Questions about advising? Dean Kim-Lee has drop-in hours! Join her for some dessert, make a personal connection, and get some excellent advice for your college career. Dec 5, 2 – 4 PM in McCormick Lounge, Busch Campus.

An Amazonian Journey in Peru
Interested in traveling abroad? Take a three-credit Interdisciplinary Honors Seminar in spring 2020 and add 1-credit study abroad to experience an Amazonian journey in Peru! Focusing on a combination of Latin American films and fiction in translation from Spanish, and texts or films originally written in English, this seminar will explore the variations to the basic narrative outlined above in the past century, as you prepare for your own journey to the Amazon. Trip features camping in the rainforest and daily travel to sites. Visit sashonors.rutgers.edu for more information.

Honors Ambassador
Would you like to be a SAS Honors Program Ambassador for spring 2020? Student Ambassadors are an integral part of recruitment for the SAS Honors Program. Ambassadors are trained early in the spring semester for participation in Scholars Days serving as panelists and luncheon hosts. Visit sashonors.rutgers.edu for more information and email Karen Nagy at knagy@sas.rutgers.edu with questions. Click here for the link to apply by Dec 13 at 5 PM.
Alumni Panel: Careers in Politics, Policy, and Public Affairs

Come network with alumni of the Eagleton Fellowship and Undergraduate Associates Program. Panelists will discuss their current positions, career paths, and advice for students. Visit eagleton.rutgers.edu/events to register. Refreshments will be served. Dec 4, 7 PM at Eagleton Institute of Politics, Douglass Campus.

Creative Writing and Walking in England

Join Professor Paul Blaney for his summer program, “Creative Writing and Walking in the United Kingdom.” Spend two weeks in Lewes. Enjoy trips to the South Downs National Park, Brighton Arts Festival, London Globe Theatre for a play and workshop, and the homes of Virginia Wolf and Rudy Kipling while writing creative responses of all genres. Visit global.rutgers.edu for more information and email Professor Blaney at blaney.paul@gmail.com with questions. The RU English Department also offers scholarships. Applications due via Study Abroad by March 1.

Photographer Needed

Are you interested in photography? RWJ Medical School is looking for a photographer to take photobooth pictures at their winter formal. Winter Formal will be on Dec 8, 6 - 10 PM in Deewan Banquet, Piscataway. Must use own camera. If interested, please contact Stephanie at sjs358@rwjms.rutgers.edu to discuss payment and include some of the pictures you’re most proud of. Dinner will be provided.
