Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

The SASHP offers you a warm welcome back! We hope you are well-rested after the break. While the start of a new semester offers many opportunities for reflection and growth, this is also the start of a new decade! Take a moment to think about what you would like to bring into 2020, and what you are hopeful for in the coming decade.

Here are some fun events and opportunities coming up to get you started off on the right foot. The SASHP has expanded our honors housing options: signup now! Looking for a paid leadership opportunity? Apply to be the Peer Mentor in Residence for Livingston North Tower! Other honors communities are also in need of leaders: keep an eye out! The RU American Medical Student Association invites you to attend their pre-health conference “Taboos in Healthcare: Being Comfortable with the Uncomfortable.” Save the date for our annual SASHP Winter Formal! Share your career experience with middle and high school students at the The Junior Achievement of New Jersey lunch and learn. Share your research by submitting to the Columbia Undergraduate Science Journal.

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media
Honors Housing Sign Ups
Honors housing sign ups are currently ongoing! Don’t miss out! Most honors housing selection is taking place now through January 28. Honors housing is available on all four campuses to all honors students. Find out more at sashonors.rutgers.edu and ruoncampus.rutgers.edu.

Peer Mentor in Residence Application
Are you looking for a paid leadership position for the 2020-21 academic year? Apply to be a Peer Mentor in Residence for Livingston North Tower honors community. Coordinate events and programs for the SASHP floor in the North Tower, develop relationships with the SASHP staff, and work closely with other honors students. Other honors communities also have positions available. Email mahasti.hashemi@rutgers.edu for an application.

“Taboos in Healthcare: Being Comfortable with the Uncomfortable”
The RU University American Medical Student Association (AMSA) invites you to attend their pre-health conference, “Taboos in Healthcare: Being Comfortable with the Uncomfortable.” There will be keynote speakers, breakout sessions, a graduate school fair, and plenty of opportunities to network. Registration fee is $10 for RU students and $15 for non-RU students and includes a full breakfast and lunch. Click here for more info and to register. Feb 1, 8:30 AM - 4 PM at Livingston Student Center.

Junior Achievement of New Jersey: Volunteers Needed!
Want to give back to your community and offer advice to students? The Junior Achievement of New Jersey is hosting a lunch and learn at Sampson G. Smith Middle School. They are seeking volunteers to speak about their career and experiences with Franklin Township middle and high school students on Jan 30 from 12 - 1 PM. This is a wonderful mentoring opportunity. Lunch is included. Contact lisa.hughes@ja.org for more information or to sign up.

Columbia Undergraduate Science Journal
Share your research work with a wide audience! The Columbia Undergraduate Science Journal is a highly selective publication that aims to provide undergraduate students with the opportunity to publish scholarly research. They are accepting submissions of papers on your scientific research. Click here for more information and to submit (deadline Feb 2).
