Monday, February 24, 2020

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Let’s face it: Mondays can be tough. It’s a hard transition to wake up for class or work after a relaxing weekend. But for most of my time at Rutgers, I’ve looked forward to Mondays. Why? Because of bubble tea! Since I was a first-year student, I’ve had swing dance practice on Monday nights. I practice a new skill, exercise, and socialize. And we usually end the night by going out for bubble tea. If you find yourself struggling with Mondays, try to plan a fun tradition for Monday nights! Study with friends, join a club, have a movie night, or go out for a special treat. You just might find yourself looking forward to Mondays!

Here are some fun events coming up. Are you a pre-health student who wants to explore gap year options? Attend the Mind the Gap Event & HPO Health Fair, happening TODAY! If you have questions about advising, visit your honors advising dean or stop by Desserts with Dean Kim-Lee. Share your college reflections by auditioning to be the Honors Senior Speaker. Bring your friends to the SASHP Movie Night: Imitation Game. Do you enjoy reading these newsletters? Apply to be the next Newsletter Editor. Celebrate Women’s History Month at the interactive arts celebration “Marking Feminine Power: Women the Sacred, and Equity.” Join the SASHP for a bus trip to the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Juniors: learn about your capstone options at the Honors Capstone Workshop. Looking to live on-campus? The housing application deadline for Jameson H has been extended!

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

---

In this Newsletter

- Events p. 2 - 4
- Mind The Gap Event & HPO Health Fair
- Desserts with Dean Kim-Lee
- Honors Senior Speaker
- Movie Night: Imitation Game
- Newsletter Editor
- “Marking Feminine Power: Women the Sacred, and Equity”
- Honors Bus Trip
- Honors Capstone Workshop
- Jameson H Housing

---

Artists Collective Coffeehouse

Do you perform? Show off your talent at the Artists Collective coffeehouse! Feb 27, 7 PM at 35 College Ave (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus.
Desserts with Dean Kim-Lee
Questions about advising? Dean Kim-Lee has drop-in hours! Join her for some dessert, make a personal connection, and get some excellent advice for your college career. Feb 25, 2-4 PM in McCormick Lounge, Busch Campus.

Mind the Gap Event & HPO Health Fair
Are you a pre-health student who wants to explore gap year options? Want to learn more about different health professions? The RU Health Professions Office presents a gap year discussion panel (3-4 PM) and gap year and health professions tabling (4-6 PM). Both events are TODAY! Feb 24 at the Busch Campus Center Multipurpose Center and Fireside Lounge.

Senior Speaker
Seniors: you’ve had quite the journey at college! Consider sharing your reflections on your Rutgers and honors experience. We invite you to audition to be the senior speaker at the Honors Scholars Brunch on May 6. Click here to submit your virtual audition and materials by Feb 25, 12 PM for consideration by our selection committee. Need ideas? Check out remarks from Elizabeth O’Brien ’19 or senior reflections from Ankita Veta ’18 and Rebecca Padersky ’18 on rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com.
Bring your friends to the next SASHP movie night! We are screening The Imitation Game, a 2014 film about British cryptanalyst Alan Turing on Feb 28, 8 PM at North Tower 8th Floor Lounge, Livingston Campus. Counts as Honors Colloquium outside event.

Newsletter Editor Needed
Do you love to read these newsletters? Do you have a passion for writing and design? The SASHP seeks a Newsletter Editor for the 2020-2021 school year to write and design 2 newsletters per week. This position allows you to be creative as well as get to know other SASHP students and honors deans. Click here for more information and to apply by Feb 28, 11:59 PM.

"Marking Feminine Power: Women the Sacred, and Equity"
RU Global invites you to the interactive arts celebration "Marking Feminine Power: Women the Sacred, and Equity." Activist, writer, and RU English Alumna Purvi Shah will lead an interactive arts event to kick-off this year's Women's History Month. Drawing upon Shah's poetry collection Miracle Marks, the audience will hear about women's issues, generate responses toward gender rights, and engage with women's history and movements toward equity. Mar 2, 7-9 PM in the College Ave Student Center Multipurpose Room.
Bus Trip to Philadelphia Museum of Art

The SASHP offers another bus trip! Explore 200 galleries of art from around the world, including paintings, sculpture, armor, photography, fashion, architecture, and more! Click here to register and secure your spot with $5 (pay at 35 College Ave or at Honors Colloquium large assembly). Food voucher for lunch is included with the trip. Feb 29, bus departs at 9 AM from College Ave Student Center, College Ave Campus. Counts as an outside event for Honors Colloquium

Honors Capstone Workshop
Juniors: start thinking about your Honors Capstone project! The SASHP will host a workshop to discuss capstone options, honors scholar requirements, and how to start your thesis. Hear from a panel of students! Feb 28, 2-3:30 PM at Academic Building Rm 2160, College Ave Campus.

Jameson H Housing
Are you looking to live on-campus for the 2020-2021 school year? Housing applications for honors housing in Jameson H has been extended to February 29! More information available at douglass.rutgers.edu.

For a full list of opportunities, click here.

Follow Us!

@RutgersSASHP  @RUSASHP  rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com  SAS Honors  @RU_SASHP