We’re six weeks into the semester, and it may be time for a check-in. Assignments are starting to roll in. If you're feeling uncertain, find a time to double-check that you're where you need to be. Check with your professors to ensure you're doing well in class. It’s never too late to check in with advisors for professional development or to discuss your academic path. Finally, try to check in with yourself to make sure you're handling the semester well.

Here are some upcoming events and opportunities. Looking for a summer opportunity? Apply to the Yleana Leadership Academy or study abroad with Professor Paul Blaney with his summer program “Creative Writing and Walking in England.” Show off your artistic talent by contributing to the Artists Collective exhibit. Share your research by submitting to the Aresty Undergraduate Research Symposium or the Aresty Rutgers Undergraduate Research Journal.

Love reading these newsletters? Apply to be Newsletter Editor - the application is closing soon! Do you have an idea for a unique research team project? Submit your idea to the Interdisciplinary Research Team Fellowships. Give back to your community by signing up to join the SASHP team at the Scarlet Day of Service. Housing applications for Jameson H are extended!

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,

Creative Writing and Walking in England

Join Professor Paul Blaney for his summer program, “Creative Writing and Walking in the United Kingdom.” Spend two weeks in Lewes. Enjoy trips to the South Downs National Park, Brighton Arts Festival, London Globe Theatre, and the homes of Virginia Woolf and Rudyard Kipling while writing creative responses of all genres. Visit global.rutgers.edu for more information. Email Professor Blaney at blaney.paul@gmail.com with questions. The RU English Department offers scholarships. Applications due via Study Abroad by March 1.

Artists Collective Call for Submissions - EXTENDED

The Artists Collective has a new exhibition this semester and the theme is "Nature." Show off your talent in any artistic medium. All majors, class years, and viewpoints are welcome. Click here to submit a photo of your work by March 4 and for specifications. Selected pieces will be showcased at the parlor in 35 College Ave. Questions? Email Dean Sanchez Gomez (cysanche@rutgers.edu) or connect with Artists Collective on FB/Instagram @SASHPART.

Yleana Leadership Academy

The Yleana Leadership Academy (YLA) is recruiting a Counselor and a Mental Wellness Counselor for their educational non-profit based in New York City. The YLA is a summer camp that includes SAT study, higher order thinking skills development, leadership academy, and traditional summer camp activities. For more information and to apply, click here. Apply by March 1.
Aresty Undergraduate Research Symposium

The Aresty Research Center for Undergraduates accepts research abstracts from undergraduates interested in presenting at the 16th Annual Undergraduate Research Symposium. This call is only open to undergraduates currently unaffiliated with the 2019-2020 research or funding programs. Abstracts will be reviewed on a first come first served basis. Students are welcome to present in groups at Symposium or orally at the Aresty Research Colloquium on April 24. Click here to submit between March 2 and March 8.

Aresty Undergraduate Research Journal

The official Aresty Rutgers Undergraduate Research Journal (RURJ) accepts research journal submissions until March 20 for the fall 2020 issue! Research conducted at RU by undergraduates in any and all academic disciplines are welcome to apply. Click here for more details and submission requirements. Email rurj.aresty@gmail.com with questions.

Newsletter Editor Needed

Do you love to read these newsletters? Do you have a passion for writing and design? The SASHP seeks a Newsletter Editor for the 2020-2021 school year to write and design 2 newsletters per week. This position allows you to be creative, get to know other SASHP students and honors deans. Click here for more information and to apply by this Friday, Feb 28, 11:59 PM.
IRT Student Project Proposals
Do you have an idea for an interdisciplinary research team project? The Interdisciplinary Research Team (IRT) Fellowship program provides an opportunity for students from a variety of academic disciplines to work as a team on a research project. Think creatively and beyond a traditional research paper! Once you find a faculty sponsor, submit your project proposal idea to be reviewed by SAS Office of Undergraduate Education. Click here to apply by March 23.

Scarlet Day of Service
Give back to your community! Join the SASHP team at the Scarlet Day of Service on March 28. Participating students will receive breakfast, lunch, a Scarlet Day of Service t-shirt, and an SASHP bandana. All participants must commit to participating the entire day from 9 AM-5 PM. Click here to join the "SASHP Serves" team by March 10 (team sponsored by the Honors Peer Mentors).
