Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

What if I told you that today is a holiday you’ve never heard of? Today is March 4th, the only day that is a sentence. Happy March fourth, or March Forth and Do Something Day! Do something that you’ve always wanted to do or something that you know needs to be done. Go to a club meeting, talk to a new person after class, or make an appointment that you’ve been putting off. Today is the day to set and reach goals, no matter the size. How do you plan to spend your March Forth and Do Something Day?

Here are some upcoming events and opportunities. Do you love reading these newsletters? Apply to be newsletter editor! Learn how to leave a mark on your community at the Mark Leadership Conference. Join the SASHP for a movie night featuring Her. The Honors Peer Mentors invite you to a S’mores Mixer! Interested in data science? Learn about industry trends and get professional advice at the Data Science Panel. Share your research with the Aresty RU Undergraduate Research Journal. Give back to your community by joining the SASHP team for the Scarlet Day of Service. Share your unique research proposal by joining an Interdisciplinary Research Team. Reserve a complimentary ticket to Mamma Mia! Join the SASHP for a Bus Trip to American Museum of Natural History. Read about the life of a past SASHP student in this month’s Honors Alumni Spotlight.

From all of us at the SASHP, enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

Newsletter Editor Needed
Do you love to read these newsletters? Do you have a passion for writing and design? The SASHP seeks a Newsletter Editor for the 2020-2021 school year to write and design 2 newsletters per week. This position allows you to be creative as well as get to know other SASHP students and honors deans. Click here for more information and to apply (the deadline has been extended!) by March 6, 11:59 PM.

Mark Leadership Conference
The Mark Leadership Conference will inspire a generation of students and leaders on how to leave their MARK on their communities and across the globe! The Mark mission is to empower an audience to think of themselves as agents of change, ready to take action in impacting the world around them. Tickets are on-sale now for one of the largest student-run conferences in the country! March 7, 9:30 AM at the Livingston Student Center.

Movie Night: Her
Join the SASHP for an Honors Movie Night! There will be a showing of the 2013 film Her, a science-fiction romantic drama about a man who falls in love with his artificially intelligent virtual assistant. March 10, 8:30 PM in Jameson H, Douglass Campus. Counts as an Honors Colloquium outside event.
S’mores Mixer
The Honors Peer Mentors invite you to a S’mores Mixer! Meet the SASHP Peer Mentor Programming Board members, play games at the RutgersZone, and enjoy some delicious s’mores! There will be vegan options. All SASHP students are welcome! March 11, 8:30-9:30 PM at Livingston Student Center RutgersZone.

Data Science Panel
The Data Science Career Prep Workshop is co-sponsored by the New Jersey Big Data Alliance and Rider University. Hear from young professionals working in the field of data science and participate in hands-on workshops designed to help you chart a path into the profession. Speakers will also discuss trends in the industry and resources available to support workers in New Jersey. Click here to register. March 10, 11 AM - 2:30 PM at Rider University.

Aresty Undergraduate Research Journal
The official Aresty Rutgers Undergraduate Research Journal (RURJ) accepts research journal submissions until March 20 for the fall 2020 issue! Research conducted at RU by undergraduates in any and all academic disciplines are welcome to apply. Click here for more details and submission requirements. Email rurj.aresty@gmail.com with questions.
Scarlet Day of Service
Give back to your community! Join the SASHP team at the Scarlet Day of Service on March 28. Participating students will receive breakfast, lunch, a Scarlet Day of Service t-shirt, and an SASHP bandana. All participants must commit to participating the entire day from 9 AM-5 PM. Click here to join the "SASHP Serves" team by March 10 (team sponsored by the Honors Peer Mentors).

Interdisciplinary Research Team Student Project Proposals
Do you have an idea for an interdisciplinary research team project? The Interdisciplinary Research Team (IRT) Fellowship program provides an opportunity for students from a variety of academic disciplines to work as a team on a research project. Think creatively and beyond a traditional research paper! Once you find a faculty sponsor, submit your project proposal idea to be reviewed by SAS Office of Undergraduate Education. Click here to apply by March 23.

Mamma Mia!
Cross seeing a Livingston Theater Company production off your RUcket list! The SASHP is offering complimentary tickets on a first-come, first-served basis.
