Wednesday, April 29, 2020

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

As we approach the end of the semester, I must acknowledge that I’m finishing an important chapter of my life. That’s right: I’m graduating. Thank you to SASHP Media Team members ImaniNia Burton for your amazing videos and to Jusleen Basara for your wonderful work on the blog. A huge thank you to Social Media Director Melissa Gotlib for helping SASHP students connect, share, and have fun! Thank you to all of the members of the SASHP, who have given me a home at Rutgers even in the most difficult of times. I’d also like to warmly welcome the new Newsletter Editor Justin Confalone. I’ve had a truly unforgettable Rutgers and SASHP experience. Now, I’m off to explore new horizons.

Here are some remote opportunities and events to finish off the semester. Join the Peer Leader in McCormick for some End of Semester Relaxation. Share your art with the Artists Collective for their fall exhibit. Read about the experiences and advice of SASHP graduating senior Mohammad Omar Ani in this week’s Senior Spotlight.

From all of us at the SASHP, stay safe and enjoy the day!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

In this Newsletter
End of Semester Relaxation
Artists Collective Call for Art
Senior Spotlight: Mohammad Omar Ani

Coffee with Keeton
Dean Keeton would like to hear how you’re doing and what you’re up to. Grab some coffee, tea, or beverage of your choice and drop by his Webex room. Ask questions or just say hi! April 30, 4-5 PM, rutgers.webex.com/meet/keeton.
End of Semester Relaxation
The Peer Leader in McCormick invites you to join in on the SASHP Webex hangout session to relax after the end of a virtual semester! Get a chance to see your peers, play online games like Pictionary, and rant about life in Quarantine! It’s also a great way to destress before finals. Visit sashonors.rutgers.edu/events for more information and Webex link. May 4, 7–8 PM.

Artists Collective Call for Art
The Artists Collective fall exhibit will be themed around "Nature." All artistic mediums, majors, class years, and viewpoints are welcome. Click here to submit a photo of your work by May 4 and for specifications. Selected pieces will be showcased at the parlor in 35 College Ave. Email Dean Sanchez Gomez with questions (cysanche@rutgers.edu) or connect with Artists Collective on FB/Instagram @SASHPART.

Senior Spotlight
Check out the SASHP Blog to read about Mohammad Omar Ani in our final Senior Spotlight. He’s majoring in Chemistry and Molecular Bio and Biochemistry with a minor in Mathematics. He hopes to work as an academic doctor at a university hospital in the future. Click here to read more about his advice, experiences, and plans for the future.

Follow Us!
@RutgersSASHP @RUSASHP rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com SAS Honors @RU_SASHP
Pre-Health Insiders Panel
Are you looking for inside advice about the world of pre-health? The Peer Leader in McCormick invites you to attend the Pre-Health Insiders Panel hosted via WebEx! Panelists include accepted medical and dental school students, pre-health upperclassmen, and BA/MD program students. April 9, 8-9 PM. Click here for the link or visit sashonors.rutgers.edu/news/events.

Summer Shadow Experience
Explore and connect in your career field this summer! The Summer Shadow Experience offers SASHP students the opportunity to visit a Rutgers Honors Alumni at their place of work. Through this one-day experience, students get a glimpse into a professional environment and networking opportunities with an honors alum. For more information and to apply, visit sashonors.rutgers.edu.

Honors Capstone Form
JUNIORS: tell us about your capstone plans. All SASHP juniors are required to submit the SAS Honors Program Online Capstone Form by April 21. For more information on capstone options and requirements, visit www.sashonors.rutgers.edu.