

A New Chapter

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Tuesday, September 1st, 2020

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Welcome back, everyone! While I hope you all had an incredible summer, it is finally that time of year again. After months of turmoil caused by the Covid-19 pandemic, hopefully this next semester can provide some sort of normalcy. While it is always important to get out of our comfort zone, half a year in a global pandemic isn't exactly the way to do so — and having some consistency in life is always a good thing. Even when mostly remote, Rutgers will always be a place to both feel at home and broaden your horizons. So get out there... we're all family. Join a club, attend some events, hang out with some new people, bring the campus to life into your own space!

Here's what we have in store. Explore your passions and meet some incredible people at this year's Virtual Involvement Fair. Looking for a remote opportunity? NJPIRG is offering Virtual Internship/Volunteer Work. If you are involved with the Peer Mentor Program, drop by this week's Trivia Night. The SASHP media team seeks new blog writers, the application is linked below! If you ever need professional, academic, or any sort of help, don't hesitate to schedule an appointment with you SASHP Honors Advisor.

Warm Regards,
Justin Confalone
Your new newsletter editor

In this Newsletter

-  Blog Writer Application
-  Honors Advising
-  Intern/Volunteer With NJPIRG
-  Virtual Involvement Fair
-  SASHP Peer Mentor Program Trivia Night
-  Honors Alumni Spotlight

Add/Drop

With the first week of classes underway, remember that the add/drop period runs from Sept 1-11. If a class doesn't seem right for you, there is no shame in considering dropping it in favor of another course!

SASHP Newsletter

Opportunities

Blog Writers: Wanted!

Want to get involved with the team behind the SASHP? We're looking for several blog writers to create content for the Honors Program Blog. Write one to two articles per month on any topic you feel relates to your college experience or student culture in general. The deadline to apply is Sept 14. Fill out the form here.

Honors Advising

Covering course selection, major selection, graduate and professional school options, internships, and research opportunities, honors advising is one of the best perks available to students of the SASHP. Read more about resources offered here.

Virtual Internship/Volunteer Opportunities

Start building the foundation for your future career by applying to be a remote intern or volunteer with NJPIRG — a student-run non-profit with an emphasis on sustainability. This fall NJPIRG is prioritizing a campaign meant to get our age group out to vote this November. Opportunities are being offered in outreach, social media, and event organization... You can apply here.

For a full list of opportunities, click here.

SASHP Newsletter Announcements

500+
ORGANIZATIONS
TO EXPLORE

Virtual Involvement Fair

Interested in exploring new passions and meeting some incredible people? Connect to the Virtual Involvement Fair running Sept 14-16. With Rutgers boasting over 500 clubs, teams, and student organizations, why not give them a tour?

Kickoff Series: Trivia Night

Looking to make some memories with your mentor or mentee? Check out the SASHP Peer Mentor Program Trivia Night. The event takes place from 7-8pm this Thursday, Sept 3, via Zoom. Various trivia topics will be covered, so put your skills to the test!

 Only SASHP Peer Mentors/Mentees may attend

SASHP Alumni Spotlight

This month's Honors Alumni Spotlight goes to 2017 graduate Emilie Broek! Emilie was a Political Science/History double major at Rutgers who went on to pursue higher education, and eventual work in the international relations field. To read Emilie's full story, head to the SASHP website here.

* There is a new spotlight every month, so be on the look out for another story in October!

Follow Us!

@RutgersSASHP

@RUSASHP

rutgershonorsblog.
wordpress.com

SAS Honors

@RU_SASHP

SASHP NEWSLETTER • SASHP.NL@GMAIL.COM