Forgive my sounding like a broken record at this point (and I promise there are no Rutgers bureaucrats forcing me to say this), but with tomorrow’s presidential debate I wanted to talk about politics, more specifically how important it is for the student body to be informed. America’s political system is not going anywhere in our lifetimes so, as the next generation of “functional adults,” knowing the lay of the political landscape will directly affect us. Reading about policies, proposals, and candidate agendas will make you a more well-informed citizen than much of the country... At the very least tune into the debate tomorrow (even if it’s just for a few minutes).

The next few weeks have some exciting events on the horizon. Join Eagleton’s Ashley Koning as she discusses Polling 101: The Art, The Science, and a look at the 2020 Presidential Election. Sit down with Rutgers alumnus Dr. Paul Dicker as he talks about his medical career at Honors Alumni Night. Interested in activism? Director of NEW Leadership Christabel Cruz is hosting an introductory workshop on activism and organizing. Show your Halloween spirit and win some prizes by participating in this year’s SASHP Costume Contest. The SASHP Peer Mentor Program is offering a Halloween Movie Night where they will be showing Split and As Above So Below. The award-winning cybersecurity company Votiro is looking for a paid student marketing assistant. Learn about a new talent spotlight the Peer Mentor Program is running through IGTV. Have Spotify? Tune into the new SASHP Radio. Check out the Honors Blog’s new article “Using Your Vote as a Voice.”

In this Newsletter

Polling 101: The Art, The Science, and a look at the 2020 Presidential Election
Honors Alumni Night: Medical
Activism and Organizing Workshop
SASHP Costume Contest
Halloween Movie Night
Paid Marketing Assistant at Votiro

Media:
Talent Spotlight
SASHP Radio
New Blog Post (Using Your Vote as a Voice)

This weekend (Oct 24- Oct 25) is the world’s largest all-women and non-binary hackathon, Technica! No coding experience required whatsoever. Find out more here!

Warm Regards,
Justin Confalone
Your newsletter editor

Director of the Eagleton Center for Public Interest Polling Dr. Ashley Koning will be providing a crash-course on public opinion polling. The talk will cover the objective and subjective balance required for good polling and how they relate to probability and uncertainty. Dr. Koning will also cover polling during the 2020 presidential election, how it compares to 2016, and whether or not its results are trustworthy. This event takes place on Wed, Oct 28 at 5pm EST. Register here.

Honors Alumni Night: Medical

Join ‘88 alum Dr. Paul Dicker for our third Honors Alumni Night for the medical field this semester, on Wed, Nov 11 at 8pm EST. After Rutgers, Dr. Dicker attended NYU Medical School and completed residency at the NYU/Bellevue Medical Center. Today, he is a board member of Lifeline Medical Associations. Asking Dr. Dicker about his trials and tribulations will be incredibly beneficial for students pursuing a career in medicine. It’s a ways out, but I’m told these events fill up quickly. RSVP here.

Activism: 101

Rutgers Center for Social Justice Education and LGBT Communities is partnering with the Center for American Women and Politics’ NEW Leadership Program to bring you a workshop on activism. The workshop will serve as an introduction to activism and organizing for any who wish to have their voice heard. This event takes place this Fri, Oct 23 at 4:30pm EST. Access the zoom meeting here.
SASHP Costume Contest

The SASHP Peer Mentor Program is hosting a Halloween Costume Contest open to all members of the Honors Program. Show your spirit by DM’ing @hpmentor on Instagram. Be sure to include your name, class year, and title for the costume in your DM. Winners will receive a shoutout on the SASHP’s Instagram and to the hundreds of readers of this newsletter. Submissions are accepted from Sun, Oct 25 to Sat, Oct 31.

Halloween Movie Night

Join the Peer Mentor Program at their Halloween Movie Night where they will show Split and As Above So Below! The showings will start on Fri, Oct 30 at 8pm EST. Split will be streamed on Zoom and does not require any external program, while As Above So Below requires Netflix and Teleparty to attend. The zoom link to join the Split viewing can be found here. The link for the As Above So Below viewing will be available on our @hpmentor IG account/emailed to Peer Mentors & Mentees 10 minutes before showing.

Paid Student Marketing Assistant

The award-winning cybersecurity company Votiro is looking for a paid student marketing assistant. Make a big impact on the marketing team while learning and developing marketing and marketing operations skills. This position is heavily focused on helping execute both ongoing tasks and key strategic projects for Votiro’s Marketing department. You will be working directly with the Director of Demand generation and will gain exposure to many different aspects of B2B marketing. Find out more here.
SASHP Talent Spotlight

Got some special talent you are eager to share? From life skills to fun skills, the SASHP Peer Mentor Program wants to see it as part of their IGTV webseries. These videos will be a few minutes long and allow students to feel a little more connected during these times. Submit your wacky talent to the program here.

SASHP Radio

Spotify your streaming platform of choice? Send in some of your favorite songs to the SASHP Radio, open to all honors students. Current playlists are 2000s-2010s Pop, Chill/Relax, Workout, Car Jams, Good Vibes (R&B), and 90s hip hop. This is a pretty ambitious collab of student music. Check here to find out more.

New Blog Post: "Using Your Vote as a Voice"

If this week’s intro was any indication, your vote is way more important than the college demographic likes to believe it is. Check our new SASHP Blog post, “Using Your Vote as a Voice” to find out why. The article can be found here.

For a full list of opportunities, click here.

Follow Us!

@RutgersSASHP  @RUSASHP  rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com  SAS Honors  @RU_SASHP